“Fear not, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name; you are mine.”

From Isaiah 43:1

WEEKLY NEWS – October 25, 2016

School News

*Respect Passage of the Week. In addition to promoting our school year theme from Isaiah 43:1 (see above), our teachers are sharing passages on the topic of respect. These passages will be part of the classroom experience and integrated when each teacher shares his/her week of devotions.

This week, Mr. Christensen and Mrs. Juga share Proverbs 3:6: ...in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

We encourage our RLHS families to continue this discussion at home as we partner to instill respect in our students. Thank you.

*Congratulations to the RLHS Cheer Squad for the Winter of 2016: Lauren Juga, Sarah Young, Alexandria Baskerville, Haley Pilcher, Hailey Vaughn, Zoe Clarke, Jada Durfey, Brittney Harrison, Taylor Williams, Dasia Mitchell, Lexi Thomas and Felicity Smith.

*Current families – If you have a child who is now enrolled in 8th grade, please contact the Admissions Office at your earliest convenience. We want to reserve a seat for your child as we prepare for the RLHS Class of 2021 to begin the enrollment process. Contact 637-6538 or sdrummond@RacineLutheran.org.

*TONIGHT! The Grand Gala Committee will meet on Tuesday, October 25, at 6 p.m. in the Learning Center. Please consider getting involved with this very important and very fun fund-raising event, which includes auctions, dancing and dinner. Note – this is an updated schedule, and the Grand Gala meeting will be finished in time for parents to attend the Winter Sports Meeting at 7 p.m. in the gym. Contact Krista Long at 637-6538 or klong@RacineLutheran.org with any questions.

*Come with us to England! RLHS is planning a trip to London, Paris, Florence and Rome from July 9 until 18, 2018. An informational meeting is scheduled from Wednesday, October 26, at 7 p.m. in the Music Room. Visit eftours.com/1921540SZ or contact Mr. Gullicksrud at tgullicksrud@RacineLutheran.org. (Note – this is a second European trip. Mr. Gasau has planned the 2017 WWII trip.)

*Our Drama Club presents You Have the Right to Remain Dead on Friday, October 28, and Saturday, October 29, at 7 p.m.

Here's what you can expect. You've just settled down in a theater to solve an audience-participation murder mystery. The narrator (Jacob Lightner) comes out and gives you a few "ins and outs" on what to look for in the play. The show starts, and you meet Slim Daddy (Petr Jaros), a rich but vindictive southern gentleman with an equally conniving and scheming family. So you know who's going to die, right? But who will the murderer be? Will it be Sweet Mama (Maja Jovovic), Daddy's pandering wife; Hyacinth (McKenzie Moore), the daughter who's always cleaning the family's firearms; Earl (Ben Young) the worm, or his overly amorous wife, Savannah (McKenzie Daanan); or Clete (Ben Jung), the sullen handyman who, for some reason, is in the will? Then, a body is discovered on stage during the performance. The director (Emma Montgomery) comes on stage and the police (Hannah Mains) arrive. Now you have to figure out who committed the murder. Oh, and the lights keep giving Trudy (Tianna Chambliss) problems by fading in and out.

Not only are you questioning the cast, but they also are questioning you! Yes, you are a suspect as well! This frantic mystery-comedy will have audiences guessing until the last clue is dropped and the last ham overacts.

Tickets are available at the door: $5 for adults, $4 for senior citizen (55+) and high school students, and middle school and grade school students are admitted free. Advance-purchase tickets can be reserved by calling the school at 637-6538.

*The Harvest Fair needs many donations to restock all the booths for this year! Now is the time to "check your inventory" and see if there are things around the house you could contribute. Any unused gifts or things you bought but didn't really need? The Fair has a gift booth. Handmade items, needlecrafts, homemade things, cookbooks, holiday decorations? The Fair can use them all. Too many collectibles, toys, dolls, or too much sports gear piling up? Free up some space and donate them to be sold at the Fair! Handbags you've barely used, jewelry you never wear? Remember the Fair! New or old, gently used, recycled, handmade, or antique, your unique items are what makes the Harvest Fair so much fun. Bring your items to school by November 4. Donations are tax deductible. See below for volunteer sign-up.

We have a special request seeking donations to the Sports Booth. Donate your new or gently used sporting equipment, including bats, gloves, pads, helmets, etc. All items should be clean and sales ready. Feel free to drop them in the Main Office. Questions can be directed to Mary-Frances at 989-1912. Thanks.

RLHS ALUMNI

ALUMNI BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26 3 p.m.

All RLHS graduates (men AND women) are invited to participate in the Alumni Basketball Tournament. It is a great opportunity for classmates and teammates to reconnect and come together for spirited competition and great camaraderie! The event is a day of fun for alumni and not being held as a fundraiser. Come one, come all!

Bring your family and friends to come and cheer on the players. No admission will be charged, and all concessions will be a dollar or less. It will be a kid-friendly atmosphere that will include contests during half-time for RLHS future alumni!

The cost is $10 per player and includes a 2016 Alumni Basketball Tournament t-shirt, and social hour at Buckets Pub following the tournament to give all alumni a chance to catch up on old times. (Wear your tournament t-shirt to post-game social hour for complimentary wings, beer and soda.)

GAMES

There will be two divisions, Competitive and Semi-Competitive, and you can register a whole team if you have 7 players that sign-up and all pay together. Otherwise teams will be based on graduation years and participants split-up depending on number registered. Games will be held in a full-court setting, and will consist of 10-minute (running time) halves. Teams will be allowed 2 timeouts per game. In the event of a tie, the game will go into a 2-minute overtime and teams will be granted an extra timeout. The tournament will be double elimination so that players will play at least two games. More detailed information and rules will be sent out prior to the tournament.

GAME SCHEDULES

Schedules will be available closer to time of event and will depend on number of participants registered. This year we will draw for game times and bracket ahead of time, so that players will have a timeline of when they will play.

INFORMATION

For additional information, contact Krista Long at 262-637-6538 or klong@RacineLutheran.org.

We hope you will participate in this year's tournament, and we look forward to alumni and their families joining us for a fun day of events!

Please return entry form and payment to the address below by Friday, November 11 (or earlier), so brackets can be made and posted/sent out prior to the tournament. You have several options available for payment:

IMPORTANT SENIOR PICTURE INFO
TO: SENIORS and PARENTS of the Class of 2017

Senior year is one of the most memorable years in a person's life, and one involving many important decisions. One lasting memory of this year is the senior class portrait. Now is the time to make arrangements for senior pictures if you have not already done so. Traditionally, these photos are taken in the late summer or fall of senior year, so that by January everyone has chosen proofs and has the pictures back to exchange with friends.

For our yearbook, one color wallet-size print (approximately 2" wide x 3" high) is needed by MARCH 1. Your photographer should send these to RLHS at no charge, or you can bring the photo in yourself. OR... You (or the photographer) also may submit a digital picture on a disk or flash drive, or email it (as an attachment) to jporter@RacineLutheran.org. Make sure the picture is high-resolution, at least 300 dpi.

You have many options. You may choose a professional photography studio or a family photographer, whatever you like best. There is a wide range of prices, picture quality, number of poses, changes of outfits, different settings, and other services. The cost will vary greatly for the senior-special packages, so compare, look at the samples on display, and ask a lot of questions.

Look at past yearbooks and write down the ideas you like best, otherwise you'll forget what to ask for! Consider: indoors/outdoors, what to wear, which backgrounds, clear or shadowy or fuzzy focus, different poses, casual with your dog or more formal with a tie? (No sideways, no horizontal pictures or full body head-to-feet shots can be used in the yearbook. No very low-cut, revealing tops for the ladies.) You might want props like a pet, car, or soccer ball. Beware of wearing clothes too trendy or loud, because this picture may hang on the wall in your home for many years, and some fashions look pretty silly after they go out of style. These are just a few points to consider. The photographer will have lots more tips for you. It is a really good idea to have at least one pose taken in which you are a little more dressed up; more formal looks are back in, and when seniors are asked to submit photos for applications or announcements, it's good to have a more sophisticated look to submit. It's up to you. Casual is fine, too.

The choices are yours, and the responsibility of having your picture taken is yours, too. If you have any questions, contact Julie Porter, advisor, at 498-5919, or email jporter@RacineLutheran.org. If you are not going to have a senior portrait done, please let us know, and we will make other arrangements or use the school ID picture taken this fall so that every senior is included in the 2017 yearbook. Thanks for your cooperation.

Also needed for the 2017 Yearbook...

By February 1, every senior needs to submit baby/childhood/casual pictures for his/her page in the senior section.

- You may submit from 3 to 8 pictures (any size – we can resize).
- We would like at least one baby/toddler picture, at least one childhood picture, and at least one candid picture. (The candid could be you with friends, family, pet, in a sport, on vacation, etc.)
- These pictures will be scanned, and the original photos will be returned to you quickly (usually within a week) and unharmed.
- You may also choose to scan your own pictures and submit the digital JPEG files on a disk or flash drive, or you may email them to jporter@racinelutheran.org. If you scan your own, set the resolution to 300 dpi. If you send photos by email, please send them as attachments. First open your email, click the attachment icon, then select your photo files and send them as attachments. If you email through your phone, choose the largest file size (highest resolution).
- Please do not turn in computer printouts of pictures or photocopies-- they will be blurry when reprinted. Send the digital file rather than a print unless it is a high-quality print.
- Please label your pictures on the back (use permanent marker or pencil, no ballpoint ink since it smudges permanently onto your pictures). Turn them in to the school office in an envelope or plastic bag, also labeled with your name. The office secretaries will record the number of pictures and date when you turn them in.
- You will have an opportunity to make changes before the final pages are sent to the publisher -- if you turn in your photos on time.

If you have any questions about these pictures, I will be glad to explain -- send me an email (jporter@RacineLutheran.org) or call me or text me (Julie Porter) at 262-498-5919.
